

Kansas Center for Autism Research and Training

Xueqin Qian, Ph.D.

Social Inclusion for Individuals with ASD

Xueqin Qian, PhD is an assistant research professor in the Kansas University Center on Developmental Disabilities. Dr. Qian's research focuses on social inclusion and self-determination for individuals with autism spectrum disorder (ASD) across the lifespan, with a particular interest in transition-aged youth with ASD.

4:00 - 5:00 p.m.
Thursday, April 16th, 2020

Join via zoom:
<https://kansas.zoom.us/j/309238137>

This seminar is supported by the Kansas Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities Research Center (KIDDRC) (U54 HD090216; KUMC PI: P. Smith; KU-L PI: J. Colombo)

